A DISCOURSE ON THE TOOTING OF HORNS

There is a classic saying – an important truism – from Socrates. Er---maybe Confucius. Oooorrrr---perhaps Shakespeare. The saying is “He that tooteth not his own horn, the same shall not be tooted.”

Many KSBC saints are wondering, “What is that Transition Team doing?” Good question. Let me answer. I will toot their horn since they won’t and most of their work has so far been under the radar.

1. They have been thinking deeply, praying earnestly and looking closely at the church’s past, present and future. (That is very quiet work.)

2. They listened attentively to you in two Town Hall Meetings. They seized upon your experience, insight and preferences. (all without fanfare) They asked you, “What kind of church are we?” “What kind should we be?”

3. They gave much thought to the church’s music advancement.

4. They suggested Miracle Month, the tither training emphasis in January. It was then planned, organized and executed by the Budget Committee.

5. They suggested the Baptist Men’s Day service of January 24. It was then well planned, arranged and carried out by Brother Joe Wilson and several others.

6. They recommended, arranged and enabled the recent Sacred Assembly.

Knobbs Springs Baptist Church

7. They devised and proposed Agape’ Month in April. It is now being planned, developed and overseen by the Fellowship Committee.

McDade, TX 78650

8. The Transition Team will soon be recommending a church constitution and additional church policies. (quiet but tedious backroom work!)

9. The TT will soon recommend a church mission statement, core values, objectives and action plans – with your input. (slow, thoughtful, minute labor!)

10. And there will be more!.

The Transition Team reports to every business meeting. Surely it is my fault that the TT has not reported on Sunday mornings more often. But, rest assured, they have been hard at work. They are striving to complete their duties ASAP so the church can move ahead in the search for that Heaven-sent pastor.

Please, pardon my tooting of the Transition Team’s horn. They would not do it, of course.
