A new year is upon us. None of us can predict what the New Year will bring, but there are two things of which you can be sure.

- 1.) 2016 will be different than 2015. Change is constant; we can always count on things changing from one year to the next.
- 2.) God will be the same; when everything around us changes, we can count on God to be the same loving, forgiving God day after day, year after year.

One of the heroes of the Bible is Joshua. He had walked in the footsteps of Moses for 40 years. His life was pretty much constant, until Moses died. Then, Joshua had to assume the role that Moses had carried for so long. He had been a good follower, and suddenly, he was expected to be a good leader. The Promised Land loomed before Joshua and the Israelites; there were decisions to be made and battles to be fought. The Israelites were used to being slaves, not warriors. They couldn't stay where they were, but the road ahead was frightening and filled with challenges.

God prepared Joshua for this new position and all of its challenges with the following words; "Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." Joshua 1:9

We must begin a new year, with its challenges, uncertainties, and unknowns, with the same promise from God. No matter what the New Year brings; good, bad, and everything in between, God will be with us. He will never leave us or forsake us. With that promise in our hearts and on our minds, 2016 will be a wonderful year; just like 2015 was.

I wish all of you a Happy New Year, and I challenge each of you, as individuals and as members of our church body, to continue to shine the light of Jesus wherever you go, in whatever you do. To God be the glory, great things He hath done!

God Bless,

David L. Atwood
