HOW 'BOUT THOSE YOUNG PEOPLE!

What a good job the youth did in morning worship on February 3rd! God came. He sang and spoke through the youthful Praise Team and other spokesmen/women. Thank you, inspiring young pillars of the church!

And they did it again at the Banquet of Love. Excellent meal! Lavish service! Fabulous program!

Our gratitude to those who arranged and served the banquet: Garlyn Radford, Lindsey Knobloch, Alexis Fisher, Mariah Garza, Kasey Goodson, Sara McManus, Kyle Langehennig, James Ashmore, Hunter Whitbey and Wesley Carver. Adult meal and serving leadership included Alyssa Edwards, Angie Fisher, Patti Radford, Stephanie Goodson, Paula Knobloch and Christine McManus. Also, tremendous thanks to many other generous saints who donated food!

What a program! Humor! Music! Love! All rolled into one heart-tugging, rib-tickling show! It was arranged and directed by Wesley Carver, Hunter Whitbey and Denton Goodson.

That's Christian teamwork. Many people exercising their spiritual gifts. (By the way, "The church that plays together stays together.")

HOW 'BOUT THOSE SERVANTS OF GOD!

Your church has so many unselfish and enduring servants.

Last Sunday Terri Edwards, Becky Yount, Shirley Marecle and Christine McManus enabled us to recognize and applaud a few of those servants. And how well Ginger Gayski, Patti Radford, Brian Bohl, Sara Klaus and Paula Knobloch spoke about some representative KSBC servants of God!

*Thank you, back-patting people!
There can never be excessive expression of appreciation.*

WE THANK THEE! WE THANK THEE!!
