HE'S ON HIS WAY.

Peter Cartwright was a 19th-century Methodist preacher. He was good & the people loved him. He was known for his uncompromising faith & witness.

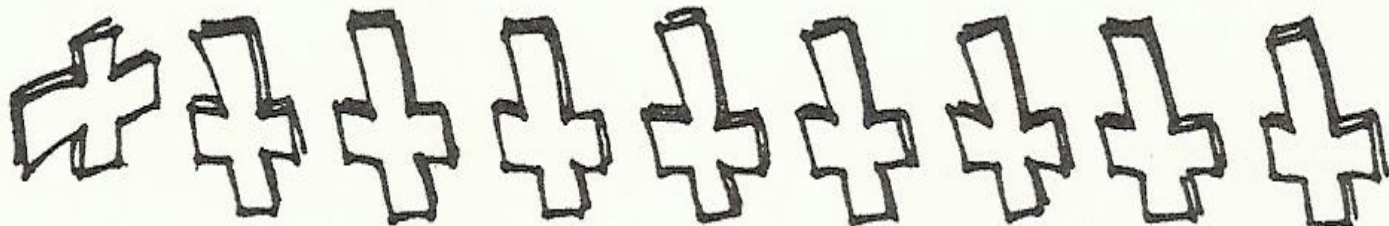

One Sunday morning, he was informed that President Andrew Jackson was in the congregation. Some leaders were nervous & quietly warned him not to say anything out of line. "Just talk sweetly," was their advice.

Beginning his message Cartwright said, "I understand that Andrew Jackson is here today. I have been urged to guard my remarks. Welcome, President Jackson. We are happy you joined us today."

"For all of you, this is my message today: 'Andrew Jackson will go to hell if he doesn't repent.'" The people were shocked by the preacher's bold sermon & wondered how the president would respond. It didn't take long to find out.

After the service Andrew Jackson walked by to shake hands with Peter Cartwright. He said, "Sir, if I had a regiment of men like you, I could whip the world."

You know that new pastor of KSBC? Well, he's on his way. Who is he? We don't know. When will he arrive? We don't know that. You know little or nothing about him, yet. You only know that he will be "just what the Lord ordered". He will be excellent! He will be godly! He will be dependable! He will be totally surrendered to God! He will probably have some
