November is a time of feasting and fellowship; a time to give thanks for all of God's blessings in our lives. But, I hope we don't wait until Thanksgiving to tell God how much we appreciate those blessings. Sadly for some people it is a very melancholy time of year, because they dwell more on what they don't have and what they've lost than on the things that God has blessed them with. I found a poem by an unknown author that I think will put this season of thanksgiving in perspective for all of us.

THANKSGIVING BLESSINGS

Count your blessings instead of your crosses
Count your gains instead of your losses
Count your joys instead of your woes
Count your friends instead of your foes
Count your smiles instead of your tears
Count your courage instead of your fears
Count your full years instead of your lean
Count your good deeds instead of your mean
Count your health instead of your wealth
Count on God instead of yourself

"But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8

God's blessings to you all,

David L. Atwood
