A BIG CHRISTIAN WORD: COOPERATION

“Everything that Texas Baptists do – every life we touch, every empty stomach we fill, every ounce of clean water we extract from wells dug out of love, every soul we help to fill with Christ’s hope – is based on cooperation,” one of our Texas leaders recently wrote.

Every day we link arms with several thousand like-souled Texas Baptist churches to serve God in our state. The MARY HILL DAVIS OFFERING FOR STATE MISSIONS in September is another opportunity to jointly reach people for Christ.

Where? Lost families along the Rio Grande ... Students in our eight universities ... Unwed mothers in San Antonio ... Released prisoners in Huntsville ... Narcotics addicts across the state ... Sex slaves seeking release from their own prisons ...

This state mission offering reaches into thousands of troubled lives and nearby homes.

ANOTHER BIG CHRISTIAN WORD: DIVERSITY

At the recent convention gathering of Texas Baptists in San Antonio we heard Julio Guarneri (Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church of McAllen) preach, John Nguyen (President of Vietnamese Fellowship of Texas) lead in prayer, music by the Ethiopian Evangelical Choir, a sermon by Bedilu Yirga (Pastor of the Ethiopian Evangelical Church of Garland), a hymn led by Cecile Dagohoy and accompanied beautifully on the violin by her daughter, Faith (First Philippine Church of Missouri City), music by Joshua Kim and the choir from the New Song (Korean) Church of McKinney, and much, much more Christian diversity.

The world has come to Texas, as you know, and Christ is working among these people.

ANOTHER BIG, HORRID WORD: PERSECUTION

You probably already know that “Beni Maar Baptist Church in Minya, about two hours south of Cairo was among nearly 70 churches, Christian institutions and businesses burned, looted or destroyed as violence spreads across Egypt. Pastor Amin (not his real name) and his family lived at the church.”

Also, “Anger... Killing... Blood...” “These are words that currently describe Egypt, said Mounir Sobhy Yacoub Malaty, pastor of First Baptist Church, Cairo. Attacks have not stopped. Innocent people are being killed... The Muslim Brotherhood vowed to take revenge by attacking Egypt’s churches.” (from “Africa Stories” published online by our International Mission Board)
